SAY WHAT?

"Yeah, a 'no'!"

"Sooner or later every good play becomes a mediocre movie."

"Government bonds."

"Who do we know? I don't know anybody!"

"This is getting exciting!"

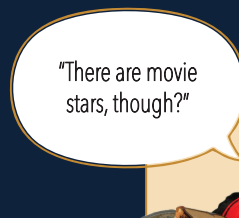

"Deet cause man do strange sing."

"NO-ONE?!!"

"Are you an actor??"

"There are movie stars, though?"

"Don't be an idiot."

"Sometimes a head of broccoli...has more power than you think!"

A DESPERATE DIRECTOR.
A HIDDEN WRITER.
GANGSTERS ON THE CLOCK.

In a grand suite at the Ritz-Carlton in 1950's NYC, a fading Hollywood director's high-stakes meeting spirals into glorious chaos. David Epstein's sharp, fast-moving farce brings together a self-taught Bronx writer hiding in the bar cabinet, a debt due at midnight, and an ensemble of characters — all colliding behind doors that never stop slamming. Witty and deliciously unpredictable.

ALL TO HONOR CLASSROOM TEACHERS, THROUGH SUMMER BREAK THEATRE.

This show runs approximately 2 hours,
with one 15 minute intermission.

The firearms used in this show are non-working.
